A. Introduction to the CFA

Welcome to CFA.

If you are reading this manual, then you most likely have accepted an invitation to guest judge a licensed CFA show. CFA has a policy that allows clubs to invite judges from our list of approved guest judges. CFA recognizes that there are many outstanding and qualified judges that are licensed by other worldwide organizations. CFA does not have an individual membership system. Our membership is composed of clubs, not individuals. Therefore, we have many exhibitors and breeders who exhibit in many different organizations. Those exhibitors observe the handling ability and breed knowledge of non-CFA licensed judges and often make recommendations to clubs to invite those judges to participate in CFA licensed shows. Through the World Cat Congress, CFA enjoys a mutual respect for the various organizations around the world and we work closely with them to monitor and make adjustments as needed.

Once you have accepted a guest judging invitation, you will receive a current copy of the CFA show rules and show standards. It is strongly recommended that you read through these thoroughly. Although many of the Breed Standards are very similar, there are several breed standards that deviate from the CFA Breed Standards. As a guest judge, you are expected to be familiar with and adhere to our breed standards and show rules. CFA will occasionally receive a request from a non-CFA judge to transfer to our judging program. There is a mechanism to accomplish this and it is outlined in the CFA Judging Program rules (an electronic link is provided below). The Judging Program Committee has developed a guest judge evaluation form that must be completed the show committee, once your assignment has been completed.

CFA licensed shows are sponsored by our member clubs. The format for our shows can include 1 to 6 exhibition rings per day. Those shows can be licensed as 1 day shows with a limit of 225 entries, 2 day shows with a limit of 450 entries and 2 days shows that are termed back to back with 1-5 rings each day with a limit of 225 entries. We also have a 6x6 format that allows for 6 rings one day followed by 6 rings the 2nd day, each with a 225 entry limit. The CFA system of multiple rings is different than many systems where the judges may handle 40-50 entries per day and provide a written report after the evaluation has been completed. In CFA we do not write reports. However, we are required to complete a standardized form after handling any miscellaneous or provisional breeds. Judges in CFA examine the entries for each breed and award 1st, 2nd, 3rd for each color class, males separated from females, then a Best of Color and 2nd Best of Color for each color class are awarded within a breed. From the color class winners a Best of Breed and 2nd Best of Breed ribbon are awarded. We also award winner's ribbons, champion ribbons, premier ribbons, Merit awards for Household Pets and Veterans Merit ribbons that are awarded to our Veteran class entries.

We are excited to have you guest judge for our CFA Club. We wish you the best and hope that you are invited back to judge often for our CFA clubs. Good luck.

B. Clerking Program Procedures.

CFA maintains a program to educate, train and license our clerks, master clerks and mater clerk instructors. This program is well established and is overseen by the Clerking Program Chair. Many, but not all, of the CFA guest judges have exhibited and/or clerked at CFA shows prior to accepting a guest judging assignment. Understanding the CFA clerking program is vital to judging a CFA show. The CFA clerking program is well defined in a power point presentation developed by Dick Kallmeyer. A copy is included for your review.

The show management is required to provide a ring clerk for each ring. We have many clerks licensed by the CFA. We also have assistant clerks working their way through the clerking program. While the judge is in control of their ring, the ring clerks manage the flow of cats into and out of the ring. Ring harmony will be accomplished when the ring clerk and the judge have good communications skills and work together to make for a successful completion of the judging process.

C. CFA Judging procedures.

You have read the show rules and brushed up on the CFA Breed standards and now you are set to embark on your first CFA judging assignment.

When you arrive at the show, the show committee will guide you to your ring assignment. You will be provided with a judge's book, Breed awards sheet(s) and a finals sheet(s). Usually, your clerk will be waiting in the ring to introduce himself/herself and to answer any last minute questions you may have. Once the show secretary has completed the check in process, an absentee and transfer sheet will be distributed to each ring. The absent cats will be listed, in addition to any color class changes or changes to birthdates of an entry. In your judge's book you should draw a diagonal line through the entry numbers of those cats listed as absent. Should an entry show up after you have marked the cat absent, write "here" and put your initials by the entry number. If you had written an "A" or "AB" in the awards column, you would then draw a line through that notation and initial it too. Some judges sign all their judging color class sheets at the beginning of the show, and some sign them as they go through the classes. Either way is acceptable.

In CFA our breeds are divided into two groups, longhair breeds and shorthair breeds. Judges are invited to judge various assignments. We are allowed to accept a LH Specialty assignment if you are judging only longhair breeds. We are allowed to accept a SH Specialty assignment if you are judging only the shorthair breeds. We are allowed to accept a double Specialty assignment if you are judging both a LH Specialty and a SH Specialty ring. And lastly we are allowed to judge an Allbreeds ring. You must hold a current license to judge the appropriate type of ring.

Color class judging refers to marking your judge's book for the type of show you are judging. If you are judging an allbreed ring, you will judge all the kitten entries by breed and color classes and make your decision for your final awards presentation. If your assignment is a specialty ring, we will use LH Specialty for this example, you would judge the LH entries for the breeds and color classes entered and make your decision for the final awards in the LH specialty only.

Once the announcement of the judges has been made by the club, your clerk will post the numbers of the cats you will be judging in accordance with the printed show schedule. The printed show schedule should be followed. However, there are times when the judging schedule will conflict with another ring and your ring clerk may suggest seeking permission from the show management to deviate from the printed show schedule.

The kitten category is a little different from the championship and premiership categories. The kitten color classes are divided between males and females only. In the Championship and Premiership judging the classes are divided into 8 classes, novice males, open males, champion/premier males, grand champion males, novice females, open females, champion/premier females and grand champion females. If any class has more than 3 entries, for example, if there are 4 black female champions in a color class, you would mark 1st, 2nd, 3rd and a dash "-" for the 4th (or more) entry.

Beginning May 1, 2011 the open males and females in championship will be entered in the show catalog as an open, but will be listed and compete as champions in the judge's books. This also applies to the Premiership classes; the open males and females will be entered in the catalog as an open, but will be listed and compete as premiers in the judge's books. Novices will continue to compete for the winner's ribbon.

Please review the enclosed absentee/transfer sheet, color class sheets, best of breed sheets and final awards sheet. Your forms will have a similar appearance to these forms once you have completed your judging assignment. Please note on the color class sheets that the color classes for males are listed on the left side of the color class sheets and the females are on the right side of the color class sheets. Male color classes all end in an even number and female color class numbers end in an odd number. For example, a ruddy Abyssinian male will have a color class number of 0380K for kittens, 0380 for championship entries and 0380P for premiership entries. A ruddy Abyssinian female will have a color class number of 0381K for kittens, 0381 for Championship entries and 0381P for Premiership entries. You will find a complete list of color class numbers in the show rules and the breed standards.

Judges mark the color class sheets differently than the clerk marks the show catalog. The ring clerk will write in your copy of the show catalog 1, 2 and 3 above the line and the "B" for best of color and "2B" for 2nd best of color below the line. Judges write their awards next to each other, 1W, 1 – B, 2 – 2B, 3, etc. If a judge withholds awards, the notations are as follows: WC – wrong color. NA-IM – No Award, Insufficient merit. NA-Cond – No Award, Condition. DISQ – for a breed standard disqualification or an aggressive cat behaving in a recalcitrant manner. DISQ-UT – Disqualify for undescended tesicle(s).

Show rules require the clubs to pay the expenses incurred while on a judging assignment. A partial list would include; judging fee, airfare, meals, lodging (the night before and the night after you complete your assignment) parking and miles driven to and from the airport. Please note that it might be more cost effective on international assignments for the judge to stay an extra day. This would be something that the club and the judge would work out before the airfare is purchased. Many times it is more cost effective for the club to pay the addition night of lodging in order to get a better priced airline ticket.

All judges are required to sign an official CFA judging contract. Most often this is done prior to the show being licensed. Occasionally, circumstances prevent a judge arriving at their assignment due to illness or a flight disruption. In that instance you might be asked to step in and judge as a replacement/guest judge. The show management should have you sign a judging contract prior to the start of your judging assignment. It could prove to be beneficial to have a blank contract with you when you are exhibiting, in case you are asked to replace a judge that is unable to officiate. Before you agree to an emergency assignment at a show, make sure you are not in violation of any CFA show rules. Being in possession of a show catalog would be an example. Make sure that you have notified the organization in which you hold a judging license to make sure that you have followed their rules and are approved to guest judge for a CFA club.

D. Final awards presentations and show mechanics.

Once you have completed the color classes you will complete the Best of Breed sheets, if you had not filled them in as you completed the breed color classes. As we discussed previously, CFA licenses judges to judge Specialty or Allbreed ring formats. If you are judging a Specialty ring, you will pick your top 10 Best in Show awards and 3 Champions for Championship Classes. You will award top 10 Best in Show awards and 2 Premiers for Premiership (altered) Classes. Do not make the mistake of choosing champions/premiers for your top 10 final awards and picking additional champions/premiers for the champion/premier awards. Here is where the mechanics of judging CFA cat shows confuses some of our guest judges. If you award a champion as Best Cat in show, it must be your best champion in show. 2^{nd} best cat is a Grand champion, 3^{rd} best cat is Grand champion, 4^{th} best cat is a champion, it must also be your 2^{nd} best champion in show. If your awards for 5^{th} through 10^{th} Best cats are novices, opens or Grand Champions, then you must select your 3^{rd} best champion from the list of the remaining breed champions you selected during your color class/breed awards. If your top 10 Best in Show awards includes only Novices, opens and Grand Champions, then you will select your top 3 best in show Champions from all the champions you selected during color class judging. This same selection process is accomplished during the Premiership judging.

Please note that beginning May 1, 2011 the open class will disappear from CFA judge's books and opens will be listed as and compete as a champion in Championship classes and as a premier in Premiership classes.

You must keep in mind that when making your selections for Best in Show Awards and Best Champions in show that you not place a higher award on a cat that was defeated by another cat. As an example, If you select three solid color Persians for Best Cat, 2nd Best Cat and 3rd Best cat, Best cat and 2nd Best cat must be your best of breed and 2nd best of breed, respectively. This also applies when you select your best champions/premiers in show. You may feel that two champions in one breed are worthy of the champion awards. You can do this and be mechanically correct, as long as you award your Best Champion winner in breed over the 2nd best champion in Breed you will be mechanically correct. Best Champion could be awarded to your solid Persian division best champion award winner. 2nd best champion is your best Maine Coon Cat champion breed winner and 3rd best champion in show could be an additional Maine Coon Cat champion that you feel meets the Maine Coon Breed standard more closely than the remainder of the champions that you judged in the other breed color classes.

As long as a cat has not been defeated by another cat, they both are eligible for the award you are considering. For example, if you have two blue eyed white male grand champions that have awards of Best of Color and 2nd best of color and two black male Grand champions with the awards of best of color and 2nd best of color and you give the award of Best of Breed to the BEW Male Grand champion, the two cats eligible for 2nd Best of breed are the Best of color Male Grand and the 2nd best of color BEW award winner. The 2nd of Best of color award winner is now on an equal level with all the other Best of color winners within the Breed Best of Color winners as neither cat has been in competition with one another up to the point of selecting your 2nd Best of Breed winner.

E. Conclusion

We have covered many details for guest judging a CFA show. There will be questions along the way and there are many people to call to get your questions answered. The CFA Judging Program will be happy to assist with your questions. At the show, you are welcome to ask your ring clerk or the master clerk to clarify show mechanic questions or questions about certain awards. There is an elected Representative for each area of the International division as well as Liaison International Division Committee members that are able to assist you.

In addition to the CFA show rules, there are also judging program rules which are available in a PDF format at the following URL:

These guidelines reflect the policies and practices set forth by the Board of Directors of the Cat Fanciers' Association, Inc. and the CFA Judging Program Committee.

Judges are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the guidelines in this booklet. Failure to comply with these guidelines subjects a judge to possible disciplinary action.

UNDERSTANDING THE IMPORTANCE OF THE TITLE, "CFA JUDGE"

This booklet is designed as a guide for all CFA and guest judges. We hope it makes it easier for you to do your job and to continue to contribute to the sport of pedigreed cats.

As a CFA judge, you are an essential part of the fancy and you carry enormous responsibilities. Without your dedication and expertise, the CFA system simply cannot function properly. You are the professional, while most club members are doing their jobs on a voluntary, amateur basis.

You should be thoroughly familiar with this guide, as well as the CFA Show Rules and the CFA Judging Program Rules if you:

- are an approved or provisional judge,
- have accepted a CFA judging assignment,
- are a guest judge accepting assignments at a CFA show, or
- plan to apply for the CFA judging program.

This booklet cannot cover all situations, nor can it substitute for common sense.

Whenever you have a question about judging procedure or conduct, the CFA Judging Program Committee is always available. The Chair of the Committee is the first person to whom you should turn to discuss questions having to do with judging, conduct or rules.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS A JUDGE

As a judge, you must meet the following key criteria:

Breed Knowledge. Through experience and continual study, you must demonstrate sound knowledge of the breeds you judge. As breed standards are continually being revised and new breeds are being added to the miscellaneous and provisional classes, it is your responsibility to judge by the CFA standard currently in effect. Good judges never stop learning all they can about the breeds, and are never hesitant to consult the standards and rules.

Procedure. You must demonstrate sound judging procedure and ring control, along with a thorough knowledge of CFA Rules, Judging Program Rules and Clerking Program Rules. Good procedure is essential. Without it, no judge can inspire the confidence of exhibitors and spectators.

Impartiality. It is essential that fanciers have complete faith in the impartiality of judges. There should be no doubt that your decisions are based solely on the merits of the exhibits as they appear on that day.

Professionalism. A CFA Judge has experience in line with the top professionals, which includes many dedicated years of learning your craft. The position of CFA Judge is honored throughout the cat fancy, everywhere in the world. It is up to each CFA Judge to promote this impression and conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times, in and out of the show hall.

ETHICS: HONESTY PLUS COMMON SENSE

A CFA judge must possess and project unwavering integrity and ethical behavior that protects the reputation of fair, honest and educated judging. With common sense, judges can easily avoid situations which might raise ethical questions.

Judges are presumed to be honest, competent and dedicated. Nevertheless, it is all too easy to find yourself in uncomfortable or even inappropriate situations. No guidelines can cover every situation, but they can help you avoid improprieties, whether real or perceived.

Obviously, some ethical rules are clear. For example:

- Never solicit judging assignments.
- Never accept any gifts that you suspect are inappropriate.
- Advise potential exhibitors not to show their cats in your ring when doing so might give the impression of unfair advantage. For example, if the exhibitor is:

    - Your employer or an employee.
    - A relative.
    - A member of your household.

These are only examples. The key is to avoid situations that are likely to give the impression of impropriety, and you must do everything possible to keep your reputation above reproach.

BREEDING AND EXHIBITING

Judges are often singled out for critical observation and are naturally held to a higher standard, due to our position as ambassadors for CFA at ALL TIMES. Therefore, please keep in mind that a perfectly innocent action or discussion can be misconstrued.

Exhibiting. All judges began as exhibitors, so it is natural to desire to continue exhibiting after becoming a judge. If you choose to do so, you should consider your behavior to be a standard to which all other exhibitors should aspire. While the purpose of exhibiting is to have an enjoyable time, boisterous conduct or anything that would call attention to yourself, particularly involving alcohol consumption in the show hall, is discouraged. Humility and dignity are the key to successful exhibiting by a judge.

Condition. Your cats should be in exceptional, unquestioned condition. By virtue of the fact that you are spending the time, money and energy to show a specific cat, you should keep in mind that everyone will assume you are representing that your exhibit meets the standard well and is an excellent representative of the breed. Both the condition and quality should be beyond reproach.

Judges who exhibit are frequently a major source of complaints. You can combine exhibiting and judging without ever causing a complaint, if you are prudent in how you exhibit. Remember, if you exhibit you should expect to be subject to special scrutiny. The Judging Program Committee will evaluate all complaints concerning judges on an individual basis. The necessary steps will be taken in each particular situation.

Social Functions. You have the option of attending club dinners, hospitality rooms, parties and other social functions given by the host club. However, prior to ordering any alcohol, you should ask the show management what the club's policy is.

Inappropriate Conversations. In your capacity as a CFA Judge, should any exhibitor or fellow judge ever bring forth an inappropriate subject (whether intentional or otherwise), the best way to handle this is to tell that person you will be judging that class, and you feel it would be inappropriate to continue the discussion. Tactfully change the subject.

Rule of Thumb. There will always be gray areas that perplex judges. When faced with such a dilemma, ask yourself whether the situation, however innocent, maintains an outward appearance of propriety. A good rule of thumb is, if you have concerns about whether something is inappropriate, you probably should avoid the situation.

ACCEPTING ASSIGNMENTS

Solicitation. No solicitation of judging assignments is ever appropriate. The CFA Judging Program Committee will investigate all reports by individuals or clubs that a judge solicited an assignment. Inappropriate examples are:

- "I would love to judge for your club some day and I hope you will invite me."
- "I am not available next year, but I am available the year after."

Invitations. Promptly respond to all invitations. If you are unable to accept an assignment, the club should be made aware of this immediately so that they can obtain another judge. If you accept the assignment, the club should be sent a fully completed contract at your very earliest convenience. Keep accurate records of assignments you accept. Double-booking is inexcusable. Careful record keeping and prompt response will help eliminate unnecessary confusion and conflict for both judges and show-producing clubs.

You should understand that by accepting an invitation, you have committed yourself to the club for the entire day or weekend. Your travel plans should not be predicated on arriving late or on leaving early to get transportation home, unless prior arrangements are made and the club has full advance disclosure.

FITNESS/ILLNESS

CFA judges must be capable of performing the functions necessary to properly judge the cats. You must have:

- the maneuverability to negotiate a ring.
- the flexibility to examine all parts of a cat's anatomy.
- the dexterity to move at a sufficient pace to adhere to the schedule of the show-producing club.
- normal vision (correctable by eyeglasses or contact lenses).
- the capability of doing all the necessary paperwork.

Judges are expected to be physically fit. If you find you cannot fulfill an assignment because of illness or other serious occurrence, immediately notify the club contact by telephone, overnight letter, e-mail or fax. The notification is not considered effective until a return acknowledgment is received from a club official.

If you are delayed en route to a show, immediately make every effort to contact the club.

COMMENCING YOUR ASSIGNMENT

Be on Time. Make sure the club has provided to you the pre-show arrangements. If the instructions are to be in the lobby at 9:15, you should congregate with the other judges at least 5 minutes early.

Your friends, if they are considerate, should be discreet in making conversation with you prior to judging. It is your responsibility to remind them to do so.

Proper Dress. Avoid inappropriate, too casual or outlandish dress. Women should not wear skirts that are too short or too cumbersome and should avoid noisy, dangling jewelry.

Judging the Cats. You are in charge. As the judge, you have full authority over all persons in the ring. With this authority comes the responsibility to be thoughtful and considerate. Be as systematic in your ring procedure as conditions permit. You should avoid theatrical movements or making inappropriate comments.

Check the ring before starting your judging. Quickly inspect the ring and look for unsafe conditions. If a condition can be corrected, it should be.

Speed of Judging. Delays and difficulties sometimes occur, but every attempt should be made to adhere to the club's schedule. Take all the time needed to properly judge a class. At the same time, use efficient methods to keep to the schedule. Thorough and complete examination is not excessive examination. Do as much as necessary and no more.

Condition. Always judge solely on the basis of condition as cats are presented in the ring that day. Give absolutely no consideration to what an exhibit's quality may be at some future or past time.

Withholding or Disqualifying. You have the clear authority to withhold any and all awards at any point in the judging process. The decision is yours alone, based on the merits of the exhibit. Clearly, compassionately and diplomatically explain your decision to the exhibitor(s) involved.

Marking Your Judge's Book. Always be thorough, neat and careful in marking your book. If awards are not correctly marked, the entire purpose of the show is defeated. The full responsibility for the accuracy of the judge's book rests with you. Any change in the judge's book must be initialed.

Observing The following guidelines apply to in-ring observation:

- Observer must be a regularly approved judge.
- May observe only under AKC Approved judges who have been judging the specific breed(s) for a minimum of five years, or approved breeder judges of twelve or more years' experience in the breed(s). If the judge under whom you are observing does not meet the criteria, this observation cannot be submitted in connection with your application breed application.
- Must have permission of the Show Chairperson and the adjudicating judge.
- Must wear an "Observer" badge while in the ring. Obtained from the Superintendent or the AKC office.
- Must limit observations to two hours under any one judge.
- Must properly complete an observation form and present it to the adjudicating judge for signature and any voluntary comments. All observation forms should accompany the additional breed application and indicate show date, name, show number, location, breed observed and entry in each breed. Obtained from the Superintendent or the AKC office.
- Must follow precise instructions of the judge and never interfere with the activities of the judge or in any way significantly delay judging.
- Comments from judge to observer are strictly confidential and must always be treated as such.
- Observing in a breed may not occur when a breed study group is in session.
- May not physically examine any dogs during judging.
- Only one observer may be in the ring at a time.

Note: Other than a breed they might judge, judges may 'observe' at a show where they are officiating. They must not "observe" a breed one day and then judge that breed the following day. 'Observer' must be a regularly approved judge.

Show Mechanics - 1

- In order to check the awards made by a judge, the clerk must have knowledge of show mechanics.
  - One purpose of clerking is to assure that all wins awarded by the judge are correctly marked on the judge's sheets.
- A good clerk will quietly call to the judge's attention a situation where it appears that an award has been omitted or has been give to an ineligible cat.
- There are 3 basic principles of show mechanics:
  1. Know precisely what the awards are
  2. Know precisely what the awards mean
     - The awards in a CFA show mean exactly what they say!
  3. Know which cats are eligible for which awards

Show Mechanics - 2

- Awards DO mean exactly what they say:
  - Best Cat is better than all other cats in the show
  - 2nd Best Cat is better than all other cats in the show except for Best Cat
  - Best Solid Color Persian Champion is better than all other solid color Persian champions but not necessarily better than all Persian champions in the show
- The clerk must understand that a cat cannot receive an award if it has been defeated at that show by any other cat competing for the same award

Show Mechanics - 3

- Cats are shown in three categories
- Non-championship classes (SR 1.18)
  a. Kittens
  b. Veteran class
  c. AOV class
  d. Provisional Breed class
  e. Miscellaneous Class
  f. Household Pet Class (HHP)
  g. Exhibition Only Class
- Championship class (SR 1.19)
  a. Novice class
  b. Open class
  c. Championship Class
  d. Grand Championship Class
- Premiership class (SR 1.20)
  a. Novice class
  b. Open class
  c. Championship Class
  d. Grand Championship Class

Show Mechanics - 1

- There are 3 basic principles of show mechanics:

1. Know precisely what the awards are
2. Know precisely what the awards mean
   - The awards in a CFA show mean exactly what they say!
3. Know which cats are eligible for which awards

Show Mechanics - 2

- Awards DO mean exactly what they say:
  - Best Cat is better than all other cats in the show
  - 2nd Best Cat is better than all other cats in the show except for Best Cat
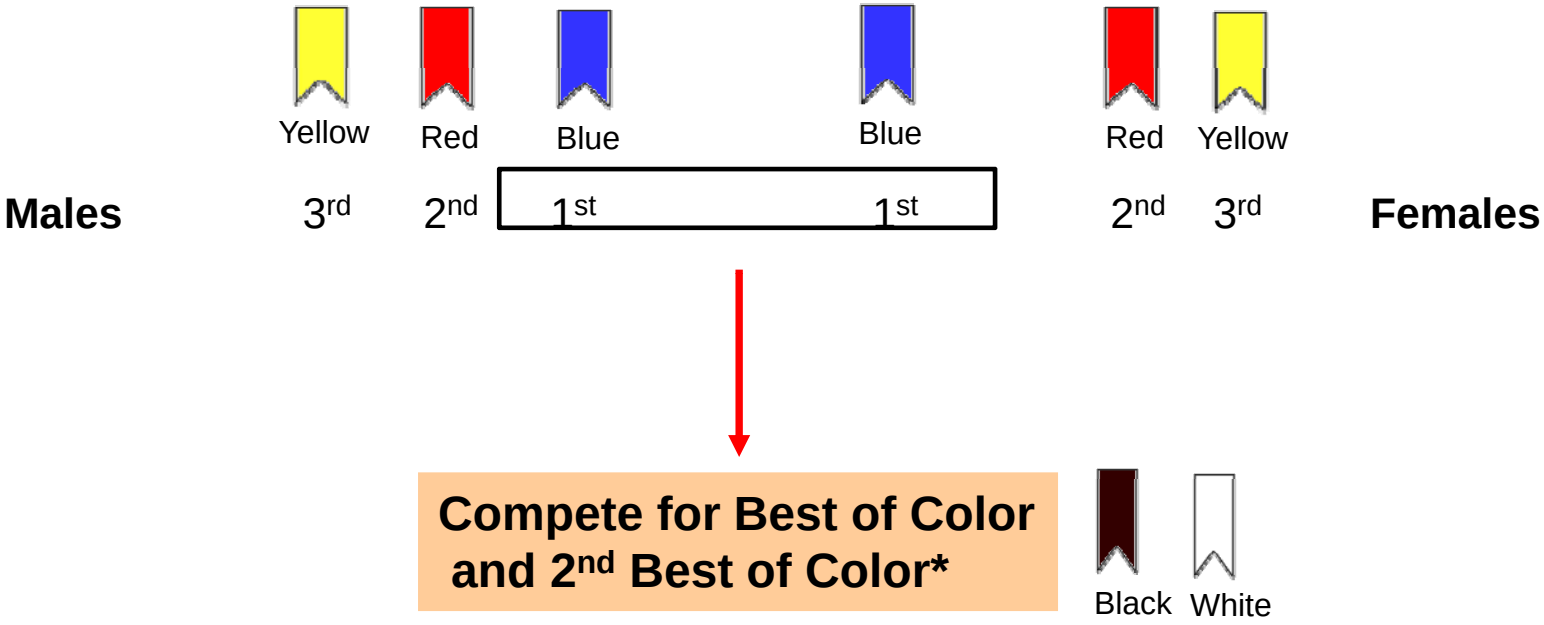
  - Best Solid Color Persian Champion is better than all other solid color Persian champions but not necessarily better than all Persian champions in the show
- A cat cannot receive an award if it has been defeated at that show by any other cat competing for the same award

Show Mechanics – Color Classes

For Kittens, judging starts in color classes within a breed/division:



The cat in the class with the red ribbon defeated by the Best of Color also competes for 2nd Best of Color

Show Mechanics – Color Classes

For Championship/Premiership judging starts in color classes within a breed/division:

Novice* Males	3rd	2nd	1st Winners	1st Winners	2nd	3rd	Novice* Females
Open Males	3rd	2nd	1st Winners	1st Winners	2nd	3rd	Open Females
CH / PR Males	3rd	2nd	1st	1st	2nd	3rd	CH / PR Females
GC / GP Males	3rd	2nd	1st	1st	2nd	3rd	GC / GP Females

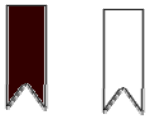
Compete for Best of Color and 2nd Best of Color*

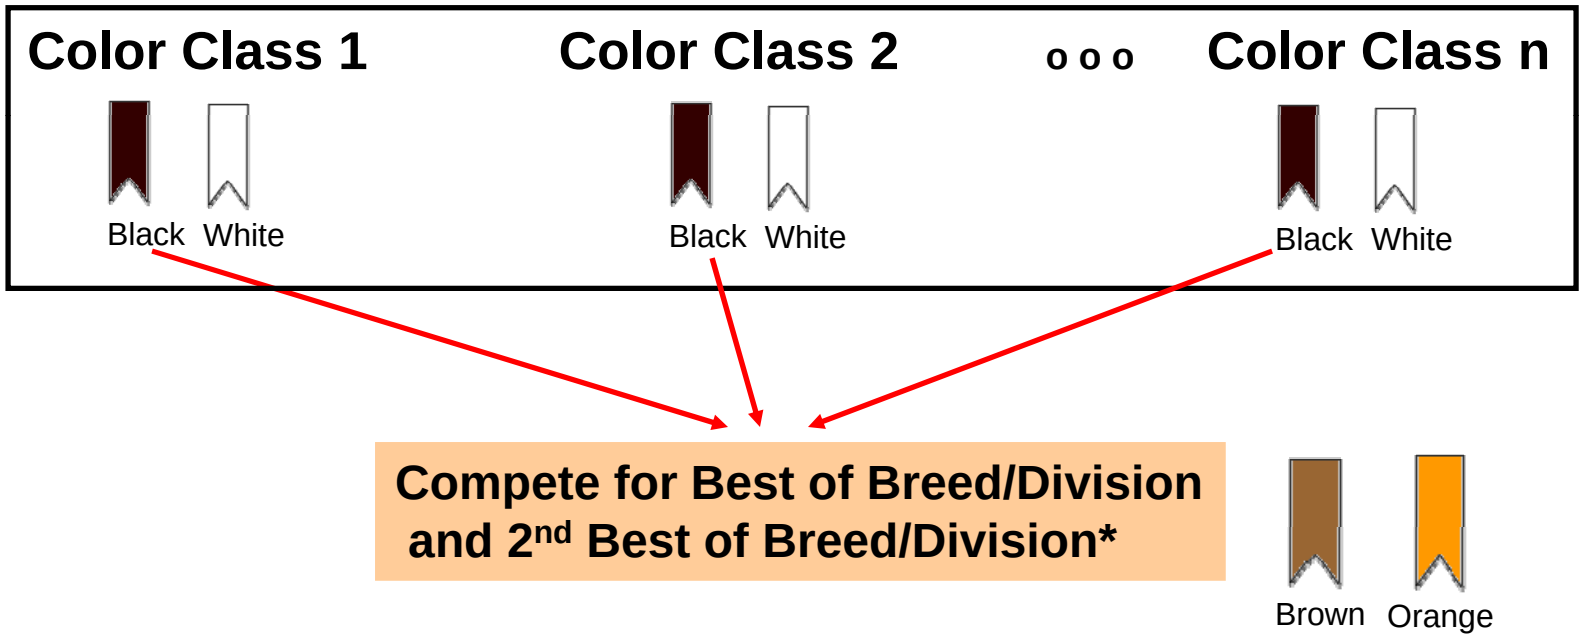


The cat in the class with the red ribbon defeated by the Best of Color also competes for 2nd Best of Color

*Note: Novice class only applies to the International Division and Canadian Maritime Provinces.

Show Mechanics – Best of Breed

The judge selects Breed/Division winners from Color Class winners (some Breeds/Divisions only have one color, e.g. Russian Blues)



The cat in the class with the white ribbon defeated by the Best of Color also competes for 2nd Best of Breed / Division

Show Mechanics – Best Champion/Premier

For Championship and Premiership, select the Best Champion/Premier:

Brown

If the Best of Breed/Division is a CH / PR

Orange

If it's not a CH/PR, but the 2nd Best of Breed/Division is a CH/PR

Black

White

Blue

If neither the Best or 2nd Best Breed/Division is a CH/PR, then the Best CH/PR of Breed/Division must be either:

1. Best of Color which is a CH/PR
2. 2nd Best of Color with Best of Color not a CH/PR
3. A First place winner with Best of Color and 2nd Best of Color not CH/PR

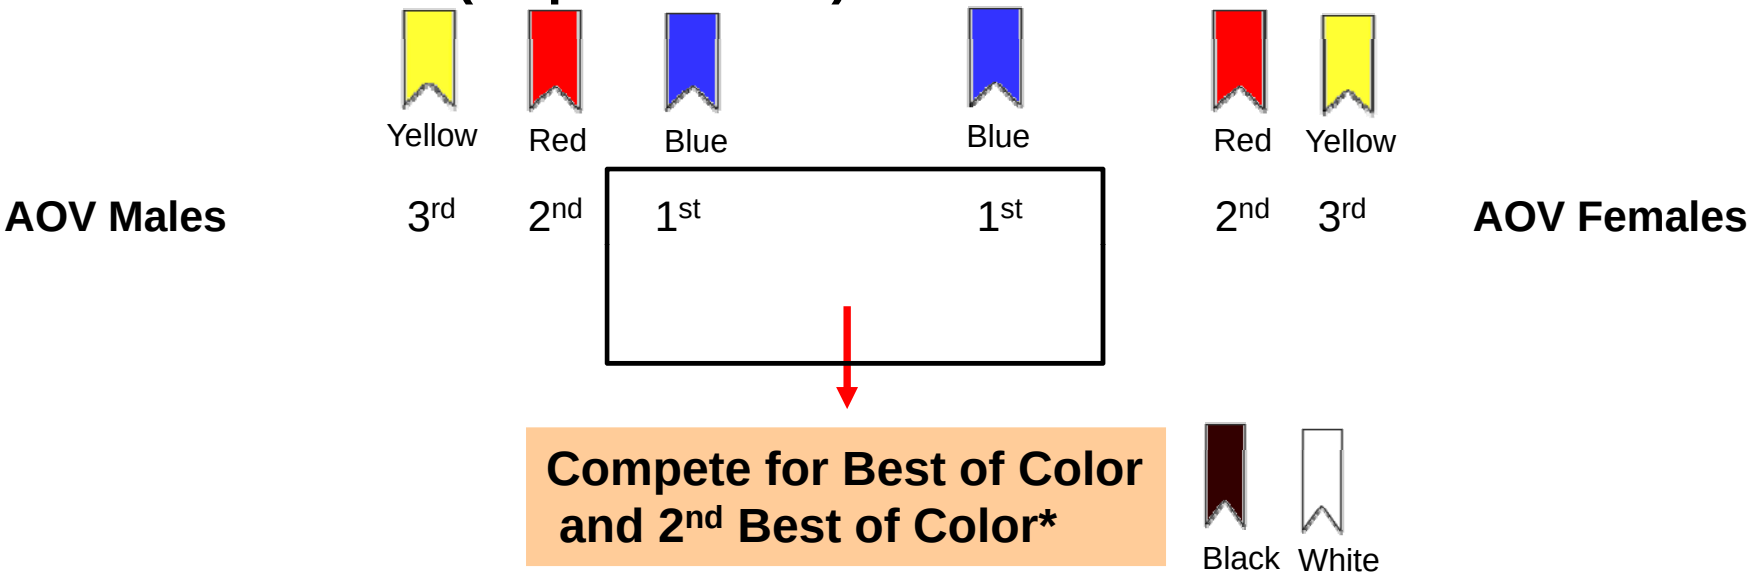
Best Champion/Premier of Breed/Division

Purple

Show Mechanics – AOV class

For Kittens, Championship and Premiership, AOV judging within a breed/division(a special case):

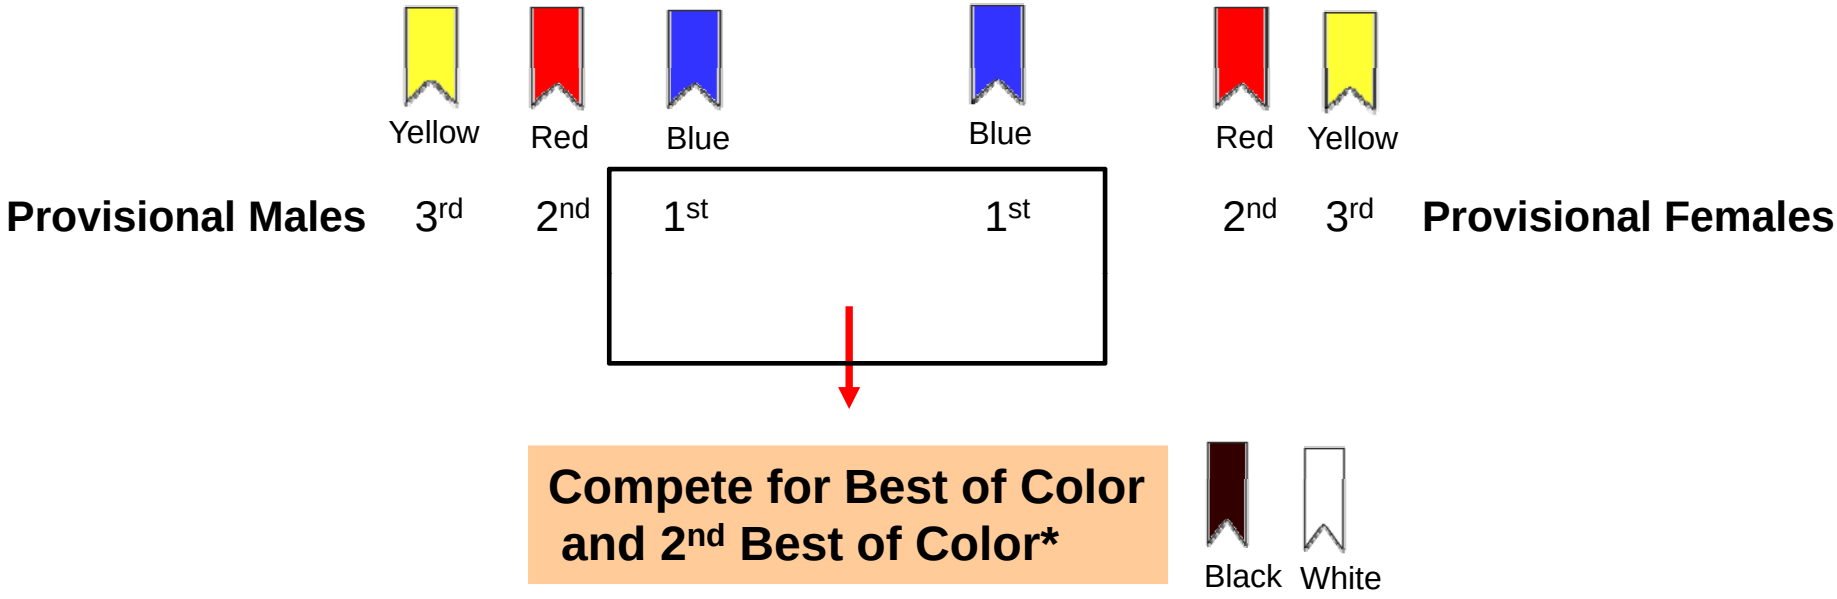


The cat in the class with the red ribbon defeated by the Best of Color also competes for 2nd Best of Color

* AOV (Any Other Variety) Class if for registered kittens/cats the ancestry of which entitles it for Championship or Premiership competition but which does not conform to the accepted show standard (Show Rule 1.18c). The AOV class only receives 1st, 2nd, 3rd, Best of Color, and 2nd Best of Color ribbons. They are not eligible for Best of Breed and 2nd Best of Breed.

Show Mechanics - Provisional

Provisional judging (a special case):



The cat in the class with the red ribbon defeated by the Best of Color also competes for 2nd Best of Color

* Provisional class only receives 1st, 2nd, 3rd, Best of Color, and 2nd Best of Color ribbons. There is only one color class. They are not eligible for Best of Breed and 2nd Best of Breed. Kittens, Championship and Premiership are judged separately.

Show Mechanics - Miscellaneous

Miscellaneous judging (a special case):

Miscellaneous class does not receive any awards. They are examined by the judge with an indication on the judging sheet that they were handled. The exhibitor is responsible for providing the judge with an evaluation form if they wish.

Marking judging sheets

- If the cat has been judged, but receives less than third place in a class, mark a dash (--). (SR 29.02)

Example: —

- If a cat is absent, mark with 'A'

Example: A

- If the cat is in the Miscellaneous class, cats judged should simply have a dash

Example: —

- If the cat was bred by the judge, it is not eligible to be judged in the ring. In that case the judging sheets should be marked with 'xxx'. (SR 2.09)

Example: XXX

Finals – 2 (Kittens, Championship, Premiership)

Check the mechanics of the final against the breed summary sheets and the judging sheets. Remember: A cat cannot receive an award if it has been defeated at that show by any other cat competing for the same award.

- If the Best Cat is Best of Breed/Division (BB) → OK
- For cats in places 2 to 10:
  - If the cat is BB → OK
  - If the cat is 2nd BB and BB is placed higher in the final → OK
  - If the cat is Best of Color and the BB and 2nd BB are placed higher in the final → OK
  - If the cat is 2nd Best of Color and the BB, 2nd BB and the Best of Color are placed higher in the final → OK
  - If the cat has another class award and the BB, 2nd BB, and no other cat in the color class has a higher award (including Best/2nd Best of Color) → OK

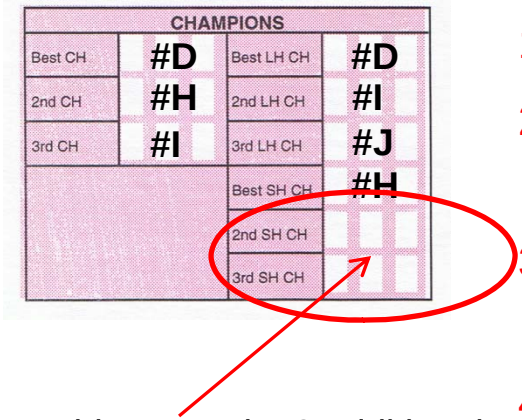
If no CH are in the top 10 or you have not selected enough Champions to completed the table, continue to the next page.

Finals – 5 (Championship, Premiership)

After all the Champions (or Premiers) are placed in the Champion table, you may have to select additional Champions (or Premiers) to complete the final. Use the breed summary sheets and the judging sheets for the selections.



In this example, 2 additional SH CH are required.

Within a Breed/Division:

1. Best CH (BCh) of Breed/Division → OK
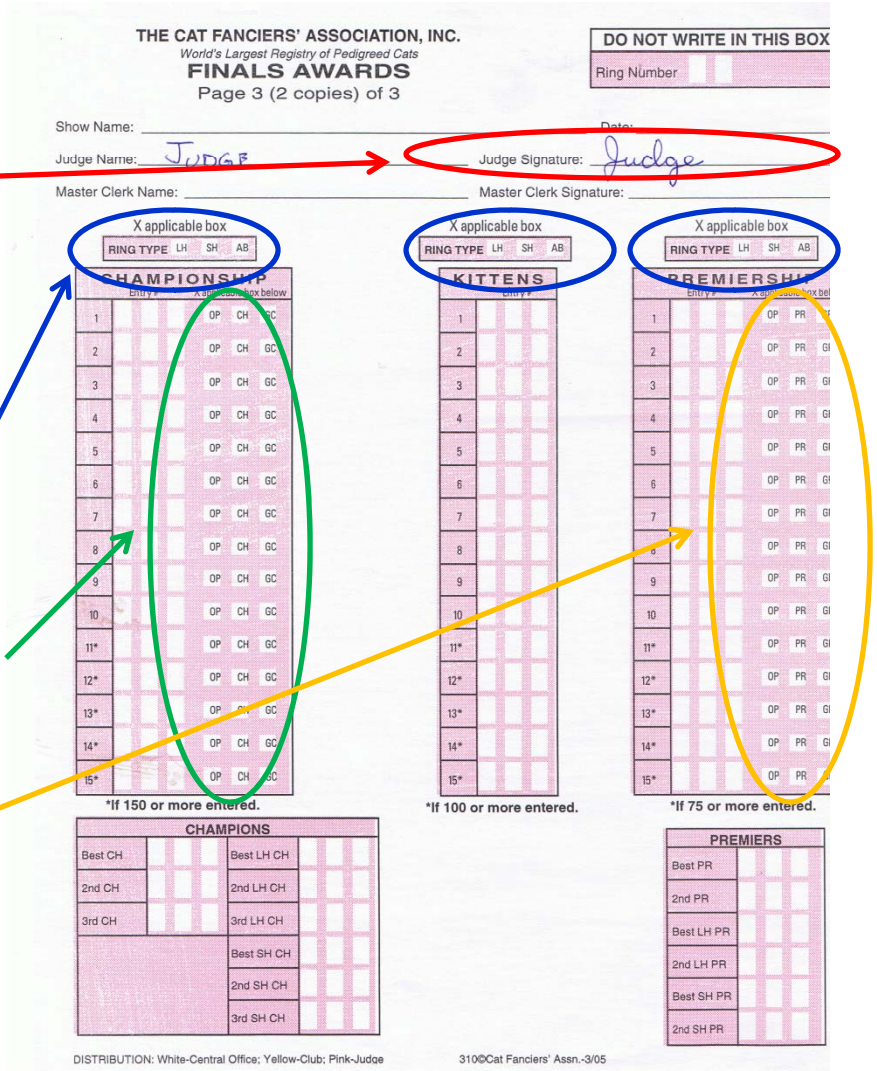
2. If the BCh has been chosen CH, then 2nd BB if it is a champion → OK
3. If the BCh has been chosen (and 2nd BB if CH), then a best color if it is a CH → OK
4. If the BCh has been chosen (and 2nd BB if CH), then a 2nd best color if it is a CH and the best color chosen → OK
5. Another CH as long as the CHs who have beaten the CH are also selected → OK

Finals – 6 (Kittens, Championship, Premiership)

Write down the top 10 cats and Champion/Premier awards on the final sheet and sign it.

Notes:

1. Put an ‘X’ for Ring type: AB, LH or SH
2. For Championship, put an ‘X’ for class: OP (use for OP for NOV also), CH, GC
3. For Premiership, put an ‘X’ for class: OP (use for OP for NOV also), PR, GP



Final Example - 1

Here's a example of an Allbreed Championship Final. The breed summary sheets are on the next page.

Checking the Final from the Best Cat,

Cats #90, 30, 37,78,53, 63, 34 and 46 are all Best of Breeds for their Breed/Division. No other cat has defeated them.

Cat #48 is 2nd BB with cat #46, BB, ahead of it. For Cat #47, we have to examine the judging sheets for Bi-color Persians summarized here.

We see that cat #47 was only defeated by cat #46 (BB) and by cat #48 (2nd BB). The final is OK mechanically so far, but we have to get the champions

9.	#48	F	GC
10.	#47	M	CH

Now, we need to determine the Champions.

The first CH is #90, so it is Best AB CH. # 90 is a SH and must be Best SH CH.

The next CH is #37, 2nd Best AB CH. #37 is LH and is Best LH CH.

Next is #53, 3rd Best AB CH and 2nd Best LH CH.

Next is #63, 2nd Best SH CH.

Next is #47, 3rd Best LH CH.

We need one more SH CH (3rd Best SH CH). Looking at the SH breed summary sheet, we could use #58, #80, #85 or #88, all BCh. Let's choose the Siamese #80
